Sunday, September 18th

Rain or Shine • All Wheels are Welcome

ALL PROCEEDS
BENEFITTING

Ben Vandermark of Walton is a well-known artist and musician. Ben suffered a stroke on Dec. 14, 2010 at the young age of 44. He has overcome many odds and his condition continues to improve with the love and support of his wife Emily, his family, friends and the staff at Countryside Care Center in Delhi. Ben is now home continuing his recovery. Ben has displayed and sold many of his paintings over the years at the Delaware County Fair at his booth, Stone Age Art. His choice of painting surfaces include slate, handsaws, wooden boxes and sleds. His subject matter has included wildlife, lighthouses, civil war scenes, farm animals and old tractors, just to name a few. To see some of Ben's art work go to www.theartofbenjaminvandermark.com
